1. General news

First of all we would like to wish all our readers a very Happy Christmas and a very Happy and Prosperous New Year for 2009.

We are sending this newsletter out a little early, as we wanted you to know that during December we shall be having a Countdown to Christmas on our blog pages, a bit like an Advent Calendar, with a new topic covered each day. These will feature many aspects of Christmas and some new additions to our Customer gallery. Our blog can be found on: <http://store.buttercupminiatures.co.uk/newsblog/> so do remember to check back daily to see what has been added.

Please remember to check last posting dates before you order (especially if you want to receive your order in time for Christmas) as some of these occur this week. A full list can be found on our web shop http://store.buttercupminiatures.co.uk/last-posting-dates-for-christmas/info_10.html

Those of you wishing to use your discount vouchers in our web shop please remember they run out on 5th December 2008 (local time) However if you live in Australia or New Zealand and have requested a voucher please remember that this date is also the last posting date, so if you want your items to arrive before Christmas please get your order in no later than 4th December 2008.
