1. General news

You may, like us, receive emails from companies that want to advertise themselves and for which you have not asked for their information. This sometimes happens if buying or registering on line and a box is automatically ticked which 'allows' them to email further offerings or products to you. At Buttercup Miniatures we think that is wrong and only ask if customers wish to subscribe to our monthly Newsletter. So our monthly Newsletter only goes out to people who have actively requested it and you can unsubscribe at any time. So it was pleasing for us to welcome our 2,500th subscriber this month and we hope that all subscribers find this and future newsletters interesting and rewarding.
